Assignment -- User Stories

Develop a set of five user stories. These stories should describe relevant and interrelated uses of Facebook.

Estimate the effort required to implement each user story (in person-hours).

Remember that a story should be independent, negotiable, valuable for users, assessable, small, and testable. Explain why each of the story satisfies these characteristics.

The users stories can be written in either English or Italian.